Little Leaguers keep winning

Campbell takes sectional title from Milpitas in 4-3 thriller

Campbell Little League all-stars who won the Section championship last Saturday by defeating Milpitas 4-3, will play their first game this Friday, Aug. 14, at 6 p.m. in the Division II tournament in Concord.

Campbell will play the Section 4 winner.

The winner of Friday's game will play for the championship on Saturday, Aug. 15, at 6 p.m. The division winner will then move onto the western regional to be played in El Cajon starting Aug. 20.

The El Cajon tourney is the last stop before the world series in Williamsport, Pa., which starts next week.

The section 3 championship tournament was played at Oak Grove field. Campbell had earned the right to meet Milpitas in the finals on Saturday by defeating San Jose National 8-1 on Friday behind the one-hit pitching of Tom Davis.

In Friday's contest, Campbell scored five runs in the fifth to lock up the game. Steve Esau banged out a homer for Campbell in the battle.

A perfect throw by Gerry Ford, Campbell centerfielder, to Paul Rhoades, catcher, shot down Dennis Scott, the Milpitas runner, at home plate to give Campbell a thrilling 4-3 win over Milpitas on Saturday.

Campbell had gone into a 4-2 lead in the top of the eighth and Milpitas had scored one run on a single. But Ford's throw to Rhoades ended the old ball game.

Campbell had scored on a double by Tom Davis and singles by Lank Rowland and Gerry Ford.

The score was tied 2-2 at the end of the regulation six-innings and neither team had been able to score in the seventh.

In the bottom of the sixth, Ron Colburn, Campbell catcher, changed positions and became a relief pitcher

With no outs and runners on first and second, he retired the side without a score and held Milpitas the rest of the way.

In 1966, the Campbell Little League all-stars also played in the divisional tourney losing to Airport, Sacramento in a heart-breaker.

In 1962, the Moreland Little League team went all the way and won the world series title in Williamsport.

Before wrapping up the sectional title against Milpitas last Saturday in that 4-3 thriller at the Oak Grove field, the Campbell all-stars had won the District 44 championship in a four-game streak.

Only one run was scored against the locals in district play.

They defeated Sunnyvale American 5-0; Santa Clara Westside 6-0; Sunnyvale Serra 4-0 and Sunnyvale Metro 4-0.

Four runs were scored against Campbell in the sectional so the all-stars now advance into division play with a total of five runs against them in six games.

In the long, long trail to Williamsport and the world series, there can be no second chance or no tomorrow.

One loss is all it takes and then it's all over.

Until next year.

For the convenience of those who wish to attend Friday's do or die battle in Concord, The Press has presented a directional map that was submitted by Joe McGrody, president of the Campbell Little League.

The City Council on Monday officially commended the all-stars and wished them well.

A RECORD for holding the briefest regular meeting in local history was probably set last week by the Campbell Planning Commission.

At least that is our conclusion after our cursory research failed to reveal any shorter meetings on record.

And we speak with some authority on the subject.

Your editor has "covered" in person a vast majority of the planning commission meetings that have been held during the past 14 years or so.

Thayer Lyons, who declined reappointment to the Commission on July 31, had completed 12 years of distinguished service on that body when he stepped down.

One might say that the two of us comprised the old guard more or less, as we could recall, if requested, some of the background of the past in this town when the planning picture was quite different than it is today.

We imagine that Thayer recalls with some nostalgia, as we so often do, some of the fierce hassles that took place in those early years of cityhood.

IN SOME INSTANCES so much bitterness was generated complete with name-calling and innuendos that one would swear the roof of the city hall was going to blow off and armed conflict result.

We think Thayer will agree with us that the hassles of today involving the Planning Commission and the City Hall are quite tame compared to some of the knock-down drag-out battles of the early years when Campbell was just getting off the ground planningwise.

Passing of time has mitigated most of the acrimony and the town has survived for better or worse.

We have always claimed that disagreements are healthy between sincere people, provided they don't allow their personal feelings to overshadow the main objectives.

We think Campbell has a pretty good record in that respect.

But there were times in the past when it was sorta touch and go.

Right, Thayer?

TAKE AS A F'INSTANCE the establishment of the Controlled-Manufacturing Zoning (CM) in town. That's real ancient history. Most of the action was over before Thayer Lyons went on the Commission in 1958.

Campbell was one of the pioneers in that particular zoning field. But even the most bitter critic when CM was being thrashed out back in the '50's, will probably concede now that CM is a highly essential zone.

But back in 1957 and 1958, it was a different story.

We know. We were around but our scars have long been healed. After all it has been 13 years.

There was talk of a referendum on this CM zone issue and The Press, Planning Commission and City Council were all blasted by opponents.

A prominent San Jose attorney, John M. Burnett, was employed by the opposition forces.

At the risk of boring you to death, we quote from a news story in The Press of the issue of Dec. 5, 1957.

" . . .not only did the attorney chide the city officials for "having their minds made up"---but he took The Campbell Press to task for its biased attitude.

" He entered as evidence an editorial of The Campbell Press of May 23 when he claimed that "CM" was publicly explained for the first time. He added that despite the editorial please of The Council names four new members to Youth Advisory Commission

Four new commissioners were named by the City Council to the Youth Advisory Commission on Monday night bringing that nine-member advisory body, depleted by high school graduation, up to a "workable" current membership of six.

Rusty Hammer, chairman of the commission, in making the recommendation for the appointments, which were based on prior "screening", indicated that recommendations will be made shortly for appointments to the other three vacancies that exist.

He also urged interested teenagers residing within the city limits to apply for the commission.

Hammer said that six of the original commissioners had been lost through high school graduation and that Ron Brooks (Del Mar); Bill Graham (Campbell/West Valley) and himself (Del Mar) were the only members remaining of the year-old commission.

Appointed to the commission on Monday were: Connie Morgan, 765 Fairland, sophomore Campbell High; Melodie Lansford, 117 Adler sophomore, Campbell High; Moira Levya, 1445 Elmwood, sophomore, Westmont High and Bill Mitchell, 870 Monica Lane, senior, Campbell High.

Police Chief John Morgan will be the advisor of the group replacing Carl Kuhn, former assistant to the city manager, who has accepted the position of assistant city manager in Pacifica.

Pruneyard asks for high sign for identification of center

Up for approval before the Planning Commission next Monday, Aug. 17, will be the application for a 44-foot high sign to be located at the northwest corner of Bascom and Campbell avenues which will identify the PruneYard development.

The identification sign will replace the many temporary a-frame type of signs that now dot the area.

Art Kee, planning director, has recommended approval of the sign, but points out, howtown, Kee adds, now have signs in excess of 35 feet.

A public hearing has also been scheduled for next Monday to consider amendments to the present city ordinance regulating drive-in theater operations within the city limits.

The amendments apply specifically to the Winchester Drive-in Theater that is now seeking a third screen to be located on a six-acre parcel adjacent to the present operation.

Zoning of the parcel, plagued by an access problem was recently changed so that a third screen is now permissible, but the ordinance prohibits a drive-in theater within 1000 feet of residences.

A public hearing, continued from the last two meetings, is also scheduled on the application for a zone change from R-1 to R-M on property located at 1785 and 1801 Hacienda, owned by Marshall S. Davis and Vernon Renner.

The Commission deadlocked 3-3 at the original hearing.

A public hearing on a proposed amendment that would allow offices in CH (highway commercial) zone is also scheduled. Another hearing involves the pre-zoning of property at 1058 El Solyo owned by the Yardstick, now being annexed to the city.

Lee Clark has applied for approval of plans for a wood yard at 249 Dell Ave., and Philip Sondeno is seeking approval of a 36-unit apartment at 100 and 130 Union Ave.

Four time extensions will also be before the Planning Commission on Monday. Small Holders Associated, Real Estate is asking for extension of time on a proposed 176-unit complex at San Tomas just north of Hamilton and for a 192-unit apartment at Valley Forge and Millich.

Sherman Zell is requesting a six-month extension for a 64-unit complex at 481 W. Hacienda and Robert F. Armstrong is seeking a six-month extension on the use permit for the Tantau Athletic Center to be located at 465 W. Rincon.

Building permit total tops last year in Campbell with July surge

Building in Campbell took an upswing during July and with that mid-summer surge the total in building permits issued by the City through July topped the same period last year by more than $500,000. But to date this year there has been no permits issued for single-family dwellings.

In July of this year, according to Wally Byron, building official, $1,061,835 in permits were issued to bring the total for the year to $4,767,805.75 as compared to $4,207,578.75 for the first seven months of 1969.

And there were five permits for commercial buildings.

Fred Sahadi took out one for another unit in the PruneYard for $336,821 and three were issued to Ira Kirkorian in The Kirkwood Plaza for a total of $31,247.

The other went to Juarco Corp. for the new service station at Winchester and Campbell for $26,328.

One industrial permit was issued to Tony Kovac for an industrial warehouse at 1115 Dell Ave. for $104,280.

Swimming pools in Campbell continued to increase with five in July coming to $17,490 for a total for the year of 21 for $68,790.

Another feature during the month was the issuance of a sign permit for the new Bank of America building in the PruneYard. The permit was for $990.

In contrast to the upswing in July, the month of June was one of the slowest months of the year with only $176,305.75 in permit valuation, more than $885,000 below the July figure.

In June there were no apartment permits taken out and only one commercial ($10,000) and one industrial ($67,824.75). Alterations and additions in June totalled more than new permits ($77,481).

City Council defers action on residential requirements

Campbell's City Council on Monday, with two members absent, voted to continue the discussion of residence requirement until Sept. 14 when a full Council would be present.

By a 3-2 vote at the last Council meeting, the item was placed on the agenda for Monday's meeting. (The two members absent Monday, Dean Chamberlin and Ed Rogers, had voted against putting the thorny question on the agenda.)

The Council also continued, at the request of Ed Williams, owner of the building at 80 Gilman, the appeal of a Planning Commission ruling rejecting the request submitted by Guild West that the city-owned lot next to the building be improved by them and used jointly with the city as a parking lot.

The Council Monday officially commended the Campbell Little League all-stars for their excellent tournament play, noting that the all-stars will play in Concord this Friday night in the division tourney, already having won the district and sectional crowns.

The divisional winner will move on to the regionals in El Cajon the following week and the winner there goes to Williamsport for the Little League world series.

The Council also approved the application of Butler Amusements to hold amusement rides and concessions at the Kirkwood Plaza Aug. 19-23.

Carl moves on

The Campbell Press extends its best wishes to Carl F. Kuhn, who this week takes up his new assignment as assistant manager for the City of Pacifica in San Mateo County.

Carl, who was until this week assistant to City Manager Bob Stephens, will be missed by this community.

During the four years he has been in Campbell he has shown a sincere interest in this city and he set an example for public service that will be difficult to match.

We are certain that he will offer the same sort of dedicated service to the City of Pacifica.

During his stay in Campbell, Carl took an active part in, what might be termed, extra-curricula activities for the betterment of his community. He unstintingly put in many hours of work for which he received no monetary compensation.

He was assigned as the official city representative on the Parks and Recreation Commission and was the advisor to the Youth Advisory Commission when that body was established. In fact he was one of the prime movers in forming the Youth Advisory Commission.

He believed sincerely in the potential that the Los Gatos Creek area offers for recreational facilities and served as secretary of the Los Gatos Creek Development Committee, an organization that encompasses representatives of all the agencies involved in any development of the creek area.

True, it will be a long time before the potential that lies along the creek will be fully realized but when that day comes Carl will be able to point with pride to his "pioneering".

Kuhn also proved invaluable through his assistance to the Campbell Chamber of Commerce by serving as a sort of liason officer in various joint C of C-city projects.

We thought one of the finest tributes that could be paid a city employee took place at a recent City Council meeting when the three chairmen of the groups that Carl had worked with trooped to the microphone to commend Kuhn for his unselfish assistance.

The three chairmen, Rusty Hammer, of the Youth Advisory Commission; Don Hebard, of the Parks and Recreation Commission, and Jeanette Watson, of the Citizens for Beautification, publicly commended Carl.

The City Council also presented Kuhn with a certificate of appreciation.

The young man was deserving of the tributes.

The Press is pleased to add its own accolade to Carl, for a job well done.

We wish you, Carl, and your Harriett, and, of course, little Tiffany, the very best as you meet the challenges of your new community.

Outstanding record

Another individual who is deserving of a special commendation for his outstanding civic activities is Thayer Lyons, who, on July 31, ended 12 years of service as a member of the Campbell Planning Commission.

The editor of The Press, because of his direct exposure to the activities of the Planning Commission for these many years, feels somewhat qualified to "judge" or "rate" members of that body, at least from the standpoint of dedicated public service.

We feel that Thayer Lyons was one of the top commissioners, if not the very best, that it has been our privilege to observe during the 14 years or so that we have made it our business to watch the Commission in action.

Thayer was always sincere and conscientious in his efforts to do what he believed was proper for the city, as well as for the individuals who appeared before the Commission.

There were times that he would stand alone, if he was convinced that his stand was right. But at all times his integrity was unquestioned.

Many items that come before the Planning Commission have to do with various facets of the building trade and Thayer's construction background proved invaluable to his fellow commissioners in many instances.

In many cases, Lyons, in a down-to-earth manner, would direct the Planning Commission back on course after some of the commissioners had strayed afield.

Although Lyons was well aware that much of the planning involved must always be mixed with idealism, he also recognized that practical application was something else again.

We concede that 12 years of civic service would appear to be long enough for one man to devote to his community so we are sympathetic with Thayer's desire to step down.

But the Planning Commission is going to miss him.

And so will we.

Press, no public support had been forthcoming which indicated that the people did not want "CM" even if the Planning Commission, City Council and newspaper did.

"You have a good news paper in this town", Burnett grimly asked, "but with all due respect to the learned publisher of the paper, is he going to run the town?"

Remember, kids, that was said 13 years ago.

BUT TO WIND UP this history lesson, the Planning Commission unanimously approved the "CM" zoning ordinance in November, 1957.

But it was not until the last of January, in 1958 that the ordinance was finally adopted by the City Council after some compromises had been worked out.

We think it is apropos in light of current activities to again quote from that esteemed (?) community medium, The Campbell Press in reporting the adoption of the CM ordinance in the issue of January 30, 1958:

"The action of the Council climaxed a 14-month hassle that set a new record for the city both in time elapsed in the discussion and adoption of any legislative measure and in the bitterness of the attack leveled against it by the opposition."

THE REASON we have gone into such detail to dig up past history is to try to show that there have been some hot ones fielded by the Planning Commission and City Council in the past decade in this town.

Many of the past controversial issues had a far higher emotional pitch than those in this so-called modern era.

Yet when the action was finally taken, the shouting dropped to a murmur and the opponents lived with it, even if they didn't like it.

And the town didn't suffer from it.

Of course, there is a moral in this.

That is, if you can find it.

WHEN WE NOTED that the Planning Commission had set a new record in brevity at the last meeting, it should have been added that the items on the agenda sort of lent themselves to speedy action.

For example, one item that had been continued from a previous meeting after the Commission had deadlocked 3-3 was continued again because there were only four commissioners present.

Then an individual who had asked for the opportunity to address the Planning Commission did not show up before adjournment.

Jack Ybarra, of 1656 E. Santa Clara St., San Jose, in a letter to the Planning Commission, had asked to be heard for two or three minutes to "cover the problem of land use and Urban growth as it relates to the City of Campbell."

But Commissioner Jack Healey, who has been on the Commission for eight years or so, suggested that maybe he realized that to cover the problem of urban growth as it relates to Campbell might have taken more than three minutes.

"After all," Healey added, "the Planning Commission has been trying to "cover" the same problem for the past 15 years."

OUR MENTION in this column last week about the big fabric firm located in the "Pruneyard" describing its location at Bascom and Campbell Avenues in San Jose drew a few wry comments from some of our readers.

They all agreed with us that the firm could possibly have some trouble getting its mail.

And they all wondered what the problem was with the outfit.

"Don't they know where they are at?", one party asked.

Two resolutions on signs were approved. One recommended that directional signs in county areas meet the standards of adjacent cities and the other would prohibit such signs within 600 feet of any county expressway which lies within a city.

The Council adopted an ordinance amending the architectural control procedure but continued the ordinance that annexation ordinance that would bring property on Winchester near Sunnyoaks into the city. The continuation was at the request of William B. Clayton, a proponent of the annexation.

The Council also approved by resolution the promotion of Officer Donald A. Dore to Agent in the police department and the employment of Richard Scott Oliver as police officer.

TAKES OFFICE---Mrs. Judy Rusciguo, who was swept into office by a big margin in the special trustee election for the Campbell Union (elementary) School District on July 21, participated in her first board meeting on Aug. 6 when she was sworn in by Richard MacQuiddy, board president.

Voters must register by Sept. 10 to vote in election on Nov 3

September 10 is the final day to register to vote in the November 3 General Election according to County Registrar of Voters George Mann.

To vote, a person must be 21 years of age, a resident of California for one year, of Santa Clara County for 90 days, a U.S. citizen for 90 days and must be able to read the State Constitution in English or Spanish.

Anyone who will meet these qualifications by November 3 is encouraged by Mann to register as soon as possible in order to avoid the long lines and delays that occur as the September 10 deadline approaches.

Mann also warned that anyone whose registration was cancelled for failure to vote in the Presidential Election in November, 1968 or who has moved since last registering must reregister before he will be allowed to vote.

"A person who was registered and has moved elsewhere within this County may take advantage of a quick re-registration method by mailing in a postcard form," Mann said.

This form is available in all Post Offices and in the personnel departments of several large employers in the County. If it is postmarked by Sept. 10 it will relieve the sender of the necessity of re-registering in person.

Mann emphasized, however, that the postcards may be used only for change of address within Santa Clara County. Persons who have never registered in this County, those whose registrations were cancelled for any reason and anyone who has had a name change or wants to affiliate with a different political party must appear before a deputy registrar and execute a complete new affidavit of registration.

This may be done at any fire station, political party headquarters or at the Registrar's office.

ON CAPITOL HILL

with "Charlie" Gubser

Recent publicity suggesting that fish caught in some of our coastal waters may be unfit for human consumption because of pollution is a hopeful sign that man is finally beginning to realize that the ocean, like the land and the air, is subject to contamination.

It has been said that the mineral wealth of all nations of the world is only a fraction of that which lies hidden in the unexplored depths of the 70% of the earth's surface which is ocean floor. And this vast expanse of planet earth belongs to no one!

Because it is ownerless and because it is so vast and limitless, man, the polluter, has done almost nothing to protect the ocean from his own contamination.

Mankind has developed a great concern for our air, our rivers, our lakes, and our streams, but he still persists in using the ocean as an international garbage can. Somehow, he has clung to the mistaken supposition that oceans are indestructible. He has littered the coastal ocean beds with raw sewage, garbage and trash. Radioactive waste and poison gas have been poured into the ocean.

In addition to what man has dumped into the sea, most of the chemical poison he places in the air is washed into it by rainfall. The poison in polluted rivers, streams and lakes usually winds up in the ocean in deep and unmoving regions of water to accumulate and remain indefinitely. For example, DDT has been found in deep ocean fish in concentrations double the safe level.

Because 250 metric tons of lead in automobile gasoline are dumped into the waters of the northern hemisphere each year by rainfall, the lead content of the north Pacific has increased 300% in 45 years. One million tons of petroleum escape into the sea from tankers causing whole catches of fish to be unusable. At least 5,000 tons of mercury are pumped into the ocean each year to cause poisonings like those recently revealed along Atlantic coastal waters.

Now with the ability to tap the great treasures of the ocean almost within man's technological grasp we are finally awakening to the importance of the ocean and the necessity of protecting it.

President Nixon has made a dramatic move in this area which has received little or no publicity. He has offered the complete cooperation of this, a maritime nation, in forming an international agency to explore and preserve 90% of the world's seabed.

College $19.1 million budget means tax rate of 94 cents

Trustees of West Valley Community College District have adopted a final budget of $19.1 million reflecting an approximate tax rate of 94 cents.

The budget breakdown shows $16.6 million in the general fund, $1.1 million in the special reserve fund and $1.4 million in the campus center fund (for the student union now under construction at the Saratoga campus).

The new tax rate is approximately 18 cents higher than the 76 cent tax rate the last fiscal year. James P. Hardy, superintendent-president, explained that the increase is reflected in the construction fund of the college. Money from the increase will be used to finance construction of a library, humanities-fine arts, and physical education complex at the Saratoga campus.

Hardy explained to the board that subsequent to adoption of the publication budget in mid-July, the State Public Works Board approved preliminary plans for the three projects and construction on the buildings can get underway this year.

The actual tax rate for the district will not be known until later this month when it is set by the County Board of Supervisors.

Thursday night trustees also approved a cooperative vocational rehabilitation program. Under the plan, West Valley will join San Jose City College and Ohlone College (Fremont) in employing a rehabilitation counselor for mentally and physically handicapped students. The counselor will help these students receive vocational rehabilitation services so they may obtain employment.

This action of the Board follows similar cooperative action several months ago when West Valley and San Jose City College agreed on joint use of facilities, pending completion of the Mission College site in Santa Clara and San Jose's Evergreen site.

Local couple attend White House reunion

Dr. and Mrs. F. Albert Ellis of Steinway Ave., have returned home from a memorable trip which included a 36th reunion with Dr. Ellis's 1934 graduating class from Whittier College at the White House. A member of the class, Richard Nixon, has achieved the highest honor of the nation, that of being president of the nation.

According to the Ellis's, the most significant attribute of their trip was that a group of men and women who grew up and were educated during the depression, at great effort by their families as well as themselves, could have the opportunity to participate in in such a rewarding experience.

While in Washington, D.C., the reunion class enjoyed a general tour of buildings and monuments including the the Senate and House in the capitol, a boat trip down the Potomac to Mt. Vernon with a walk through the buildings and grounds there, and a tour through Alexandria, Va.

One morning was spent in trying to see Representative Charles Gubser who was out and Senator George Murphy was in California. They were able to see Senator Alan Cranston on an elevator and attended his meeting of the Senate Banking Committee.

The Ellis' spent a Monday afternoon at the White House when it was closed to other visitors. A tour of the building included several rooms not usually shown and enjoyed refreshments including iced tea, coffee and pastries, served in the state dining room.

The President made a short talk to the group as a whole and as each couple went through the receiving line, they had their pictures taken with the Nixon's and each person received a pen and a gift.

On Tuesday the White House arranged a visit to sessions at the Senate and the House of Representatives and in the afternoon a tour of Blair House and the adjoining Lee Home which now comprise the President's Guest House used only for Heads of States.

A special tour of the State Department and the beautiful facilities on the sixth floor was also included. The sixth floor is used for entertaining state visitors from all countries and the rooms are decorated and furnished in the period of the person for which each room is named.

The National Archieves with special displays of early California documents was included in the special tour as was a visit to the Bureau of Printing and Engraving where they saw postage stamps, bonds, certificates of various kinds and millions of dollars being printed.

On the last day of the official reunion the group enjoyed lunch at the Boling Air Force Officers Club and a command briefing by General William Ferguson, Commanding Officer at Andrews Air Force Base followed by a trip through the President's plane which is known as Air Force One.

A dinner that evening was attended by Whittier alumni and governmental figures.

Following the conclusion of the reunion the Ellis's journeyed to Cape Cod and then visited with relatives in New York and Rhode Island before returning home.

Dr. Ellis is a professor of Physiology at San Jose State where he has been for 24 years. According to Dr. Ellis, there were 97 in the graduating class.

Campbell BofA puts red carpet service to use

Customers at Bank of America's Campbell branch will be given the red carpet treatment literally as well as figuratively starting today, Aug. 12, according to Ed Fabbri, manager.

The bank is initiating a "red carpet fast teller service" designed to reduce waiting in line to an absolute minimum and to further personalize service.

Fabbri said the fast teller service is being installed in selected Bank of America branches throughout California during forthcoming months.

In explaining how the new service works, Fabbri said: "When you come into the bank, you fill out your checking or savings slip, then move into a single line. When you reach the head of the line, you then go to the first available teller.

Customers are invited to give their comments about the service to Fabbri.

Chairman, advisor review first year of city Youth Commission

---By

Rusty Hammer, chairman, Youth Advisory Commission
Carl F. Kuhn, assistant to the City Manager

The Congress for Community Progress in March, 1969, recommended that the City of Campbell form a Youth Advisory Commission. A committee was formed consisting of nine interested young people and a member from the City Manager's office to study the recommendation.

The committee drafted a suggested resolution and presented it to the City Council for approval at their August 28, 1969 meeting.

The Council adopted the resolution authorizing the creation of the Youth Advisory Commission.

After nearly one year of operation, we wish to honestly evaluate the successes and failures of the Youth Advisory Commission.

OBJECTIVES

The first goal of the Commission was to hold a Youth Conference to get opinions from young people concerning what our direction could and should be. The conference was poorly attended and not much was accomplished. We learned from this that a Youth Conference of this type was not the best way to approach our problem.

Since then we have held two well attended hearings. One was on the 18 year old vote. Another was on Assembly Bill 1674 by Assemblyman John Vasconcellos, which stated that no California resident shall be required to serve in an undeclared war.

The Youth Advisory Commission took positions on both issues.

In the area of police-youth relations, groundwork was laid in two major areas. The first was the establishment by the Youth Advisory Commission of a drug abuse curriculum for the Campbell Union School District. A second project is to assist the Police Department in obtaining a Delinquency and Crime prevention Officer.

Another area was concerning youth employment. We have been studying ways to make the Youth Employment Service a year-round organization.

Another area of study was that of parks and recreation. Three members of the Youth Advisory Commission served on the Rincon Park Development Committee. This committee worked with the architect to develop plans for Campbell's newest City park. Along the same lines, the Youth Advisory Commission also worked with the Campbell Citizens for Beautification in the planning and planting of 1,000 trees along San Tomas Expressway.

RUSTY HAMMER
---chairman

The Youth Advisory Commission also assisted the Campbell Citizens for Beautification in the preparation of the 1969 Beautification Scrapbook entered in the National Clean Up - Paint Up - Fix Up Contest.

The most recent activity was participation in the Campbell Union High School District tax election of July 21, 1970.

PROBLEMS

Perhaps the biggest problem that faced the Youth Advisory Commission was the lack of participation and involvment by young people themselves. It is hoped that during the coming year, this will not be the case. The only way that the Youth Advisory Commission can effectively function is to obtain the active interest and dialogue with the people that they represent.

In an effort to improve upon this dialogue, the Youth Advisory Commission plans to hold meetings at schools and churches instead of holding every meeting at City Hall.

FUTURE

Some of the planned activities for the coming year include a continuation of the on-going programs mentioned above. (parks, beautification, Youth Employment Service, Local, State, and Federal Legislation, Delinquency and Crime Prevention Officer).

Some new programs include establishing communication with other Youth Commissions and with the Campbell Union High School District Board of Trustees by asking that they send representatives to Youth Advisory Commission meetings and having the Youth Advisory Commission, in turn, send representatives to their meetings.

The Youth Advisory Commission will also be investigating possible locations for a Youth Center before the Rincon Park Center is completed.

GET INVOLVED

This coming year will decide whether or not the Youth Advisory Commission will continue as is or function as a vital part of City government. Your help is urgently needed to serve on the Commission.

The Youth Advisory Commission need people who are willing to devote their time, energy, and new ideas.

Vacancies currently exist on the Youth Advisory Commission, and if you are interested in helping to make it a vital part of the City government of Campbell, call the City Manager's office, 378-8141, to indicate your interest.

OBITUARIES

MRS. STELLA HENLEY

Final services were held August 8 for Mrs. Stella M. Henley, a native of San Jose and the mother of William C. Henley, retired Campbell Union (elementary) School District superintendent.

Mrs. Henley, who was 86 at the time of her death, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Fisk, pioneer orchardist who settled in the valley in 1866. Her father, a Canadian, operated orchards in the Alviso and Endenvale areas and also served as trustee of the Oak Grove School.

Mrs. Henley was the widow of the late William Wheeler Henley, a civil engineer who passed away in 1949. She attended Stanford University and was a member of the San Jose Adult Education Vagabonds and of the First Congregational Church.

Besides her son William, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Mary H. McClung of San Jose and a son, Rufus F. Henley of Oakdale, nine grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Memorial services were held at the Stone Presbyterian Church under the direction of Oak Hill Mortuary with final inurment in the Oak Hill Memorial Park.

CLEANLINESS IS BEAUTY--This is the exit from the Kirkwood Car Wash. By the time the car rolls out, it has been thoroughly washed and completely dried (and waxed also if required). From start to finish, the complete operation requires only two and a half minutes, according to Larry Beekman, manager.

IN PUERTO RICO

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Reservations are now being made for the August dinner-dance sponsored by the Women of the Moose on Aug. 22 at the Moose Lodge. All members and their spouses having a birthday in August will be guests of the lodge. Phone 379-5895 or 269-0232 for reservations.

Chicken cacciatora will be the featured entree.

PANTRIES

The word "pantry" is from the Latin word "panis," meaning bread, and until the 17th century was merely a closet where bread was kept.

MARKET COMMENT

The tight money situation and the cautious mood of the investors continue to plague the growth of the market and the economy.

The earnings reported thus far, indicate that the glamour and growth companies are having great difficulties in their attempts to increase their earnings. It is my opinion that low earnings and the general slowdown of growth will continue the consolidation of the market. In view of this, speculator and quick growth companies represent an especially poor risk, since they will experience difficulties in this conservative market. The tight money and the slowdown in economy indicate that income and dividend securities should be recommended at this time.

Listed below is the earnings picture of the various stocks that I recommended during the past several months:

Quarter June 30:	1970	1969	Recommended
Texaco Dividend - 6.2% - $1.55	$ .65	$ .64	25-7/8
Giant Portland Cement Dividend - 7.1% - $ .80	$ .33	$ .14	9-1/4
Lehigh Portland Cement Dividend - 4.5% - $.60	$ .10	$ .16	14
Pacific Gas & Electric Dividend - 5.7% - $1.50	$ .60	$ .62	25-7/8
Philadelphia Electric Dividend - 7.7% - $1.64	$1.02	$1.08	21-7/8

The above listed information represents but a brief summary and does not purport to contain all available data on the subject covered. Additional information is available upon request.

If there is any way in which I may prove to be of service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

GET TO WORK--Mrs. Aldona Meek, Mountain View, office secretary for the Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association of Santa Clara-San Benito Counties, brings in a stack of work for her new boss, Richard S. Gaines, named executive director of the Christmas Seals organization.

Gaines, who came here from the Los Angeles association, is currently living in Campbell.

DMV now issues "yellow slip" for car owners

If you have a motor vehicle, you probably know that a "pink slip" is a 5x5 inch square of paper that tells the world you are the vehicle's owner. But what's a "yellow slip"?

This new document has been designed by the Department of Motor Vehicles to let you tell the world when you have stopped owning the vehicle.

A pink slip, registration card and yellow slip are being mailed to every person who acquires exclusive ownership of a California-registered vehicle beginning in July, 1970.

The pink and yellow forms should be kept together in a safe place until title to the vehicle passes to someone else.

"When you hand the pink slip to whoever buys your vehicle, send the yellow slip to us," advises California's Registrar of Vehicles John L. McLaughlin. "It can protect you from being accused of traffic violations which might be charged to the future owner."

He added that it's still the buyer's legal duty to record transfer of the vehicle within ten days after taking delivery, so that ownership records can be rewritten in his name.

"We'd like to make the yellow slip as well known as the pink slip," says McLaughlin. "It can spare the vehicle seller a lot of grief and expense, whether or not the buyer reports the purchase to us.

"For best results, the buyer and seller should go to the nearest DMV office and file their papers together."

Newly-weds now at home in Richmond

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH PISAPIA

Wedding vows at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Saratoga on June 27 united JoAnn Marie Rush and Joseph James Pisapia in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Gerald J. Geary.

For her wedding day JoAnn chose a white princess style gown of sheer organza and Venise lace with batteau neckline and Victorian sleeves. A full chapel length veil, made by her sister, was held in place by a jewel and satin and lace floral headpiece. Completing her ensemble was a cascade of white carnations.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Linda Elaine Rush who wore a pink floor length dotted swiss gown and carried a nosegay of dusty pink carnations with olive green and pink ribbon streamers.

Her two bridesmaids, Janice Rush and Mrs. John Carney, wore similar gowns and carried identical carnation nosegays with pink ribbons.

JoAnn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Benjamin Rush of Dundee Ave. A 1964 Campbell High School graduate, she was graduated from San Jose State in 1970 with a degree in home economics. Prior to her wedding she was employed by J.C. Penney Co., Westgate.

Joseph is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Storminger of Santa Clara and was graduated from San Jose State with a degree in political science. He has completed a one year traineeship for department manager with the Penney company and is now employed in Richmond on his first managerial assignment.

Traveling from North Dakota was Roger A. Somer to stand with his friend as best man. The duties of ushers were carried out by Thomas E. Wight and Larry King. George Judd was entrusted with the rings as ring bearer.

During the services Mrs. Clifford Lowe of Central Point, Oregon, a childhood friend of the bride, sang "Ave Maria" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Before leaving on their honeymoon to Hawaii the new Mrs. Pisapia changed into a pink suit with white accessories accented with a corsage of white baby roses. Mr. and Mrs. Pisapia are now making their home in Richmond.

During the reception the guest book was attended by Mrs. James Davis; the gift table, by the Misses Nancy Senne and Vera Judd and the cake was cut by Miss Carolyn Rush.

Special out-of state guests included Mrs. Eugene Shelton of Medford, Oregon, Mrs. Clifford Lowe, Central Point, Oregon, Mrs. and Mrs. Herbert S. Lingren of Medford, Oregon; Miss Nancy Seene of Schiller Park, Illinois and Mrs. John Carney of Colorado Springs, Colo.

Annual Santa Clara County Fair opens gates this Friday for 10-day stand

"Fairtime Is Funtime" is the theme for the 26th Annual Santa Clara County Fair, which opens Friday, August 14 for a 10-day run. It will close August 23.

Entertainment, exhibits and contests will put the emphasis on fun for this year's Fair-goer, according to William A. Straub, fair manager.

ENTERTAINMENT

A special attraction at the Fair will be the north American debut of the Bentley Royal European Circus. During the first three days of the Fair, the circus will present two free performances daily at the Fairgrounds' grandstand.

Featured acts will include leopards, elephants, clowns, unicycle balancing acts, pony drill teams, and European Jugglers. Also performing will be The Flying Artons, an exceptional trapeze team direct from the Circus Scott in Sweden, and Miss Kim Bear, a daring diver who leaps from a three-story platform into a giant sponge.

Following the circus will be two days of free auto thrill shows. On August 17, midget auto races will be staged in the grandstand area, with mini-cars racing over a specially built track.

The next evening, an auto thrill show, featuring world champion auto daredevils will be presented at the grandstand for all Fair-goers.

Highlighting the last five days of the Fair will be free professional stage shows, starring Victor Buelna, Mexico's top recording artist; Olga Romero, guitarist; The Snyder Brothers, Misical comedy headliners from Las Vegas; The San Miguel Mariachas, one of Mexico City's finest bands; the Folklorica Dancers from San Francisco; and Jose Gonzales-Gonzales, musical comedian, film, and television star, who will be master of ceremonies for the performances.

The stage show will be presented 8:45 nightly, August 19 - 23, with matinees on Saturday and Sunday.

AGRICULTURE

A new twist will be given to Fair's agriculture exhibit this year. The funtime theme of "Roaring Twenties" will be predominate throughout the displays of fruits, vegetables, and wines. Oldtime cars, clothes, magazines, and photos will be exhibited.

An official Mr. and Mrs. Roaring Twenties, (Jim and Diana Pettipiece of San Jose) will be dancing and singing with the music of the flapper era

In another section of the agriculture building, outstanding students from Santa Clara County high schools will be demonstrating the latest scientific innovations from eight county industries, Lockheed, Pacific Telephone and Telegraph, Ames Research - NASA, Standard Oil, IBM, Sylvania, United Technology Center, and Stanford Linear Accelerator Center will be participating.

Also located in the Fairgrounds agriculture building will be the industrial art projects of students in area high schools and colleges.

HOME ECONOMICS

The women's home economics department will be featuring a specially built electric kitchen, with daily demonstrations of unique cooking styles. Programs will include canning, as well as Hawaiian, Italian, and Oriental cooking.

Displays in the department will also include baking, sewing, knitting, and canning exhibits. A fashion show and daily musical entertainment will also be featured.

Located in the home economics building is the art and photography display. Awards have been presented to winners in oil painting, watercolor, ceramics, jewelry, graphics, and sculpture categories.

SPECIAL DAYS

Children under 16 years old will be admitted free to the Fair on Kid's Days, August 18 and August 21.

Wednesday, August 19, senior citizens will be admitted to the Fair for the price of juniors - 75¢. A Senior King and Queen will also be crowned that day, and special entertainment in the Floriculture gardens will be presented. Ebb Bohn, the long-time Cheery Farmer at the Fair, will be master of ceremonies for the day's events.

Future Farmers of America and 4-H'ers will be showing their beef, lambs, goats, pigs el al, during the full ten days of the Fair. On the last Saturday of Fairtime, the Junior Livestock Auction will be held.

FLOWERS

Flowers will create a floral fantasia in many areas of the Fair. Amateurs and professionals alike will have their chance to win prizes in the many divisions of the floriculture department.

Poultry, rabbits, and pigeons will all be displayed under one roof in the Poultry Building.

READY TO GO—Governor Ronald Reagan (right) and Mr. and Mrs. Ebb Bohn, longtime Campbell residents, help Melodie Short, Miss Santa Clara County, call attention to the fact that 26th annual Santa Clara County Fair opens this Friday, Aug. 14 and will run through Aug 23.

Bohn will again be the "Cheery Farmer" a characterization he has presented in many of the past fairs. Melodie will reign as queen for the 10 days along with her royal court.
